Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Seasoning (salt & pepper)
Water
Sugar/Sweetener/Honey

1. BEFORE WE START Preheat the oven to 200°C. Boil the kettle. Dilute the stock with 300ml [400ml] of hot water.

2. GOLDEN AUBS In a bowl, combine the cake flour with a generous amount of salt and pepper. Toss the aubergine in the flour, ensuring they are all evenly coated. Spread the aubergine rounds out on a greased baking tray and bake in the oven until golden and cooked through, 20-25 minutes.

3. CRISPY CHICKPEAS Place a pan over medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the chickpeas until golden, 8-10 minutes. Remove from the pan, season, and set aside.

4. BORANI SAUCE Return to medium heat with a drizzle of oil (if necessary). Fry the onion until soft, 6-8 minutes, shifting constantly. Add the tomato paste, garlic and borani spice mix, and fry until fragrant, 1-2 minutes (shifting constantly). Add the tomato passata and the diluted stock and simmer until slightly reduced, 10-12 minutes. Mix through a sweetener (to taste) and the kidney beans. Season and remove from the heat.

5. LAYER AND SAVOUR Plate up the aubergines in an even layer. Top with the borani sauce. Dollop over the cashew nut cream cheese and finish it off with a sprinkle of mint. Dig in, Chef!

Chef's Tip Salting aubergine before cooking helps reduce any bitterness and draw out excess moisture, giving it a softer, creamier texture and helping it brown beautifully. Let it sit for about 10 minutes, then pat dry before cooking.
