Saucy Garlic Chicken

with parsley rice & peas

A great cooking trick to remember is that one extra step or ingredient can easily elevate a nice dish to an impressive one. This recipe uses that handy tip with the side dishes by adding fresh parsley to the rice and turning plump peas into a lovely green salad. A creamy, dreamy garlicky sauce is always a winner for a chicken dinner!

60ml	Low Fat Fresh Milk

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Paper Towel
Butter

1. RICE Place the rinsed rice in a pot with 150ml of salted water. Cover with a lid and bring to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer until the water has been absorbed, 8-10 minutes. Remove from the heat and set aside to steam, 8-10 minutes. Fluff with a fork, toss through ½ the chopped parsley, and cover.

2. CHICKEN Pat the chicken breast dry with paper towel and place on a chopping board. Use a sharp knife to slice into one side of the breast, starting at the thicker end and ending at the thin point (be careful not to cut all the way through to the other side). Open out the breast so that it resembles a butterfly.

3. PLUMP PEAS Boil the kettle. Submerge the peas in boiling water until plump and heated through, 2-3 minutes. Drain and place in a bowl. Just before serving, add the shredded salad leaves, a drizzle of olive oil, and seasoning. Toss until combined.

4. FRY Place a pan over medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the butterflied chicken until golden and cooked through, 2-3 minutes per side. During the final 1-2 minutes, baste with a knob of butter. Remove from the pan and set aside to rest for 5 minutes. Season.

5. SAUCE Return the pan to a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the diced onion until soft, 3-4 minutes (shifting occasionally). Add the grated garlic and fry until fragrant, 1 minute (shifting constantly). Add 20g of butter and the Italian flour. Fry for 1-2 minutes (shifting constantly). Remove from the heat and gradually stir in the milk, making sure there are no lumps. Loosen with a splash of warm water if it's too thick. Season.

6. WELL DONE, CHEF! Plate up the parsley rice and top with the chicken smothered in the creamy sauce. Side with the pea salad and sprinkle over the remaining parsley.
