From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Paper Towel

1. POPPING QUINOA Rinse the quinoa and place in a pot. Submerge in 400ml of salted water and place over a medium-high heat. Pop on a lid and bring to a simmer. Cook for 12-15 minutes until the quinoa is tender and its tails have popped out, adding more water if required during cooking. On completion, drain if necessary and return to the pot. Replace the lid and allow it to stand off the heat for at least 5 minutes. Once cooled, toss the hoisin sauce through the quinoa until fully incorporated.

2. TOASTED SESAME Place the sesame seeds in a pan over a medium heat. Toast for 2-4 minutes until the white ones are lightly browned, shifting occasionally. Remove from the pan on completion.

3. MAKE THE SALSA Place the pineapple chunks, edamame beans, sliced chillies (to taste), the carrot and cabbage, and ½ the chopped coriander in a bowl. Add a squeeze of lemon juice and toss until combined.

4. ORIENTAL TOFU Return the pan to a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. Toss the tofu chunks in the oriental rub and fry for 3-4 minutes on each side until crispy and golden all over. Remove from the pan on completion.

5. NOURISHING & HEARTY Plate up the sticky quinoa and top with the tofu chunks. Side with the salsa slaw. Garnish with the toasted sesame seeds and the remaining chopped coriander. Serve with the chopped pickled ginger and any remaining lemon wedges on the side for that extra zing!
