From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water

1. START THE SAUCE Place a pot over medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, add ½ the diced onion and all the pepper pieces and fry for 4-5 minutes until soft, shifting occasionally. Add the grated ginger and the curry paste (to taste) and fry for 1 minute until fragrant, shifting constantly. Add the curry sauce, the coconut milk, and 300ml of water. Bring to a simmer, cover, and cook for 12-15 minutes until slightly reduced, stirring occasionally.

2. GET HANDS-ON In a bowl, combine the mince, the remaining onion, and seasoning. Wet your hands slightly to stop the mixture from sticking, and roll into 4-5 meatballs per portion.

3. FRY 'EM, CHEF Place a pan over medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the meatballs for 4-5 minutes until browned but not cooked through, shifting occasionally. You may need to do this step in batches. Remove from the pan and set aside.

4. CRISPY & GOLDEN Return the pan to medium-high heat with enough oil to cover the base. When hot, shallow fry the poppadoms, one at a time, for 30 seconds per side. As soon as the poppadom starts curling, use a spatula or tongs to flip it over and flatten it out. Keep flipping and flattening until golden and puffed up.

5. BRING IT ALL TOGETHER Once the curry has reduced, pop in the browned meatballs and simmer for 4-5 minutes until cooked through, basting occasionally. In the final 2-3 minutes, add the shredded kale and the corn. Season with the lime juice (to taste), salt, and pepper.

6. BOWL UP! Dish up the meatball curry. Sprinkle over the chopped cashews. Side with a poppadom. Get dunking, Chef!

Chef's Tip

If you would like to toast the cashew nuts, place them in a pan over medium heat. Toast for 3-5 minutes until browned.
