Ingredients & Prep

750g	Sweet Potato peeled & cut into bite-sized chunks
450g	Pak Choi rinsed & trimmed at the base
170ml	Ponzu Sauce
450g	Pork Rump
22,5ml	Sesame Oil
125ml	White Wine
30ml	Chicken Stock
85ml	Orange Juice
60ml	Sugar
15ml	White Sesame Seeds
12g	Fresh Coriander rinsed & picked

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Milk (optional)
Paper Towel
Butter
Sugar/Sweetener/Honey

1. SWEET MASH Boil the kettle. Place a pot over a medium-high heat with 2cm of boiling water covering the base. Once steaming, place the sweet potato chunks in a colander over the pot. Allow to steam covered for 20-25 minutes until cooked through and soft. Alternatively, use a steamer if you have one. On completion, discard the water and return the cooked sweet potato to the pot. Add a knob of butter or coconut oil (optional), a splash of water or milk, and seasoning. Mash with a fork or potato masher until the desired consistency and combined. Cover to keep warm.

2. PONZU PAK CHOI Separate the stems and the leaves of the rinsed pak choi. Shred the leaves and thinly slice the stems horizontally. In a bowl, combine the shredded pak choi leaves and sliced stems, ½ the ponzu sauce, a drizzle of oil, and seasoning.

3. CARAMELISED PORK Place a pan over a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. Pat the pork rumps dry with some paper towel, and coat in some seasoning. When the pan is hot, sear the steaks, fat-side down, for 3-5 minutes until crispy. Then, fry for 3-4 minutes per side, or until cooked through (this time frame may depend on the thickness of the steaks). During the final 1-2 minutes, baste with a knob of butter, a sweetener of choice, and the remaining ponzu sauce - this will create a caramelized coating on your rump! Remove from the pan on completion and allow to rest for 5 minutes before slicing. Lightly season the slices.

4. CITRUS SAUCE Return the pan to a medium-high heat with the sesame oil. When hot, add the white wine and simmer for 2-4 minutes, until almost all evaporated. Add the chicken stock, 180ml of boiling water, the orange juice, and the sugar. Mix until fully combined. Leave to simmer for 5-6 minutes, until slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. In the final 1-2 minutes, add 45g of butter. Remove from the heat and season to taste.

5. STUNNING! Pile up the sweet potato mash and side with the caramelised pork rump slices drizzled with the citrus sauce. Serve with the ponzu pak choi. Sprinkle over the sesame seeds and picked coriander. Beautiful work, Chef!

Chef's Tip

If you would like to toast the sesame seeds, place them in a pan over a medium heat. Toast for 2-4 minutes until lightly browned, shifting occasionally.
