From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Sugar/Sweetener/Honey
Paper Towel
Butter

1. RICE Place the rinsed rice in a pot with 400ml of salted water and $\frac{1}{2}$ the coconut cream. Cover with a lid and bring to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer until the water has been absorbed, about 10 minutes. Remove from the heat and steam, 8-10 minutes. Fluff with a fork, mix in the remaining coconut cream, and cover.

2. SEEDS Place the sesame seeds in a pan over medium heat. Toast until they pop, 2-3 minutes (shifting occasionally). Remove from the pan and set aside.

3. FISH Return the pan to medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. Pat the yellowtail dry with paper towel. When hot, fry the fish until golden, 3-4 minutes per side. In the final minute, baste with a knob of butter. Remove from the pan and season.

4. SAUCE Roughly slice the pak choi stems and cut the leaves in half lengthways. Return the pan, wiped down if necessary, with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the stems, the grated ginger, and the grated garlic until fragrant, 3-4 minutes. Add the soy-sesame sauce, 40ml of sweetener, and 200ml of water. Simmer until almost reduced by half, 6-8 minutes. In the final 1-2 minutes, mix in the pak choi leaves.

5. DINNER IS READY Make a bed of the coconut rice, top with the fish, pour over the sauce (to taste), and side with the pak choi leaves. Sprinkle over the sliced spring onions and the sesame seeds.

Chef's Tip

If you're feeling fancy, slice the green parts of the spring onion into long, thin strips and place them in a bowl of ice water to make them curly for your garnish!
