3g	Fresh Parsley rinsed & roughly chopped

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Tinfoil
Paper Towel

1. LET'S GET GOING Boil a full kettle. Dilute the stock with 350ml of boiling water and set aside. Place a pan, large enough for the paella, over a medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, add the diced onions, the chorizo slices, the grated garlic and ½ of the seafood rub. Fry for 4-5 minutes until soft and translucent, shifting occasionally. Stir through the arborio rice for 1-2 minutes until fully combined. Mix through the cooked chopped tomato. Slowly pour in the diluted stock. Bring to a boil, reduce the heat to low, and gently simmer for 15-20 minutes until the rice is al dente and all the stock has been absorbed.

2. ALMOST THERE Once the paella is cooked, season with salt and pepper. Remove from the heat and cover with tinfoil and let the paella steam for 5-8 minutes.

3. CARROT TOSS-UP In a salad bowl, add the carrot ribbons, vinegar, a drizzle of oil and some seasoning. Toss until fully combined.

4. SPANISH BASA Pat the basa dry with some paper towel. Coat in the remaining seafood rub, a drizzle of oil and some seasoning. Place a nonstick pan over a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the fish for 2-3 minutes per side until cooked through and golden.

5. INDULGE Dish up the paella and top with the golden basa. Serve the carrot salad on the side and crumble over the feta. Garnish with the chopped parsley. Enjoy, Chef!

Chef's Tip

The secret to a well-cooked paella: never stir it, only stir when it's necessary!
