Ingredients & Prep

400g	Potato peeled (optional) & cut into thin wedges
5g	Fresh Dill
40g	Salad Leaves
80ml	Low Fat Plain Yoghurt
2	Schoon Burger Buns halved
180ml	Cake Flour
1 tin	Soda Water
2	Line-caught Hake Fillets

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Butter (optional)
Paper Towel

1. ON THE WEDGE Preheat the oven to 220°C. Place the potato wedges on a roasting tray, coat in oil and seasoning. Roast in the hot oven for 20-25 minutes or until cooked through and crisping up, shifting halfway.

2. GET YOUR PREP ON... Rinse the dill and salad leaves. Finely chop the dill and shred the salad leaves. In a small bowl, combine the yoghurt, the chopped dill, and seasoning.

3. TOASTED BUNS Spread butter over the cut-side of the halved burger buns or brush with oil. Place a pan over medium heat. When hot, place the halved buns, cut-side down, in the pan and toast for 1-2 minutes until crispy. Set aside on a plate for serving.

4. BEAUTIFULLY BATTERED HAKE Place a pot over medium-high heat. Fill with enough oil to deep-fry the hake. In a bowl, combine the flour and seasoning. Gradually mix in 90ml of soda water until a smooth batter forms. Add an extra splash of soda water if the batter looks too thick. When the oil is hot, dip the hake fillets into the batter until coated. Using a pair of tongs, carefully lower each battered piece into the hot oil and deep-fry for 4-6 minutes until the batter is golden and crispy. Drain the fried hake on paper towel, and season.

5. BURGER NIGHT! Time to assemble! Smear the bun halves with some of the dill yoghurt. Top with the shredded salad leaves, battered hake and close up with the other bun halves. Side with the roasted potato wedges and the remaining dill yoghurt for dipping.... Mmm!

Chef's Tip

We have taken all steps to ensure the removal of bones in the fish, but please be cautious when eating as there could still be some pesky ones that remain.
