300ml	Coconut Cream
150g	Spinach rinse & roughly shred
6	Poppadoms
8g	Fresh Coriander rinse & roughly chop

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water

1. OVEN-GRILLED POTS Preheat the oven to 200°C and boil the kettle. Spread the potato pieces on a roasting tray. Coat in oil and season. Roast in the hot oven until golden, 35-40 minutes (shifting halfway).

2. MEANWHILE... Dilute the stock with 300ml of boiling water and set aside.

3. LET'S GET SPICY Place a pan over medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the drained chickpeas, the grated garlic, the grated ginger, the sliced chilli (to taste), and the curry paste (to taste) until fragrant, 1-2 minutes (shifting constantly). Pour in the cooked chopped tomato, the coconut cream, and the diluted stock. Stir until combined and bring to a simmer. Cook until reduced to a curry-like consistency, 12-15 minutes (stirring occasionally). In the final 2 minutes, stir through the shredded spinach until wilted. Remove from the heat. Just before serving, toss through the roasted potato and season.

4. POPPADOMS? DONE! Place a clean pan over medium-high heat with enough oil to cover the base. When hot, shallow fry the poppadoms one at a time, about 30 seconds per side. As soon as the poppadom starts to curl, use tongs to flip it over. Keep flipping until golden and puffed up.

5. AS TASTY AS CAN BE Pile up the loaded curry and side with the puffed poppadoms. Garnish with the chopped coriander. Sprinkle over any remaining chilli (to taste).
