Potato & Corn Soup

with toasted ciabattini

It's difficult to compete with a big bowl of warm soup on a cold winter's night, especially if it is this recipe. An inviting vegetable stock, dotted with golden-fried onion, carrot & fresh herbs, is used to cook the potato. After adding sweet pops of corn and crème fraîche, the soup is blended until a smooth and luscious liquid. Sided with toasted ciabattini bread.

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive & coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Milk (optional)
Blender
Butter (optional)

1. AND WE'RE OFF! Boil the kettle. Rinse the mixed herbs and set aside.

2. ON TO THE SOUP BASE Place a pot over medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the sliced onion and the carrot pieces until golden, 8-10 minutes (shifting occasionally). Add the NOMU rub, the veg stock, the rinsed herbs, the potato chunks, and 800ml of boiling water. Bring to a boil and cook until the potatoes are soft, 20-25 minutes.

3. LET'S BUTTER THE BUN While the soup base is boiling, halve the ciabattinis and spread butter or oil over the cut-sides. Place a pan over medium heat. When hot, toast the ciabattinis, cut-side down, until golden, 1-2 minutes.

4. MIX THINGS UP Once the potatoes are soft, remove the whole herbs and discard. Remove the pot from the heat and mix through the corn and the crème fraîche.

5. BLENDING IN Pour the soup into a blender and pulse until smooth and combined. Return to the pot and season. Add a splash of milk (optional) or water to loosen until desired consistency. Return the pot to low heat until serving.

6. SOUP'S UP Bowl up the hearty potato & corn soup and serve the toasted ciabattinis on the side for dunking.
