1. BRING THE SPICE Place a pot over a medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the diced onion for 4-6 minutes until soft and translucent, shifting occasionally. Add the sliced chilli (to taste) and tomato-curry paste. Fry for a minute until fragrant, shifting constantly. Add the chicken pieces and fry for 1-2 minutes per side, until browned. Add the potato chunks, the cooked chopped tomato, and 600ml of water, adding more if necessary. Mix until fully combined. Leave to simmer for 15-20 minutes, until the chicken is cooked through and the potatoes are soft.

2. TAKE THE HEAT OFF In a small bowl, combine the yoghurt with ½ the chopped coriander and seasoning. In a separate bowl, combine the grated carrot, the juice from 2 lemon wedges, ½ the remaining coriander, a sweetener of choice (to taste), and seasoning.

3. TOAST THEM UP Place a clean pan over a medium heat. When hot, warm the rotis for 30-60 seconds per side until heated through and lightly toasted. Alternatively, spread them out on a plate in a single layer and heat up in the microwave for 30-60 seconds. Once heated, stack on a plate on top of one another and cover with a tea towel to keep warm.

4. TIME TO NOM! Dish up a bowl of the delicious chicken curry. Dollop over the creamy coriander yoghurt and serve the carrot salsa on the side. Sprinkle over the remaining coriander and side with the warmed rotis. Serve any remaining lemon wedges on the side.
