From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive OR coconut)
Seasoning (Salt & Pepper)
Water
Egg/s
Paper Towel

1. SOME PREP Peel and finely dice  $\frac{3}{4}$  [1] of the onion. Rinse, trim and finely slice, keeping the white and green parts separate. Rinse the tomato and cut into bite-sized pieces. Rinse the tomatoes and cut into bite-sized pieces. Roughly chop the biltong, piquanté peppers and olives separately. And finally, rinse, pick and roughly chop the mint.

2. BROWN ONION Place a pan over medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the onion until soft and golden, 5-6 minutes. Remove from the pan and set aside to cool.

3. BILTONG BATTER In a bowl, whisk  $1\frac{1}{2}$  [2] eggs and the milk. Add the biltong, corn, spring onion whites, flour & spice mix, and seasoning. Mix until combined (the batter should be thick but spoonable). Loosen with a splash of water if it's too thick.

4. FRY THE FRITTERS Return the pan to medium-high heat with enough oil to cover the base. Gently add tablespoons of biltong batter into the pan, flatten slightly, and fry the fritters until golden and crispy, 2-3 minutes per side (flipping them gently). Remove from the pan and drain on paper towel.

5. JUST BEFORE SERVING In a small bowl, combine the crème fraîche, onion, and peppers. In a salad bowl, combine the vinegar and a generous drizzle of olive oil. Mix to emulsify, add the tomatoes, olives, mint, and seasoning.

6. TIME TO EAT Plate up the delicious fritters, side with a dollop of flavourful crème fraîche, and serve the chunky tomato salad on the side. Garnish with the spring onion greens and enjoy, Chef!

Chef's Tip Don't overcrowd the pan, cook in batches and keep the oil hot enough for a sizzle (medium-high). This ensures golden edges instead of soggy fritters.
