1. PERUVIAN PERFECTION Preheat the oven to 200°C. In a bowl, combine a drizzle of oil, the Peruvian spices, and seasoning. Pat the chicken dry with paper towel. Add the chicken to the spice mixture and toss until coated. Place the leeks, onion and beetroot on a roasting tray, top with the spiced chicken and roast in the oven until cooked through and crisping up, 30-35 minutes (shifting halfway).

2. CORN & BULGUR Boil the kettle. Place the bulgur wheat in a pot with 150ml [300ml] of boiling water, a drizzle of oil, and seasoning. Simmer until cooked through, 6-8 minutes. Drain if necessary, add the corn, fluff with a fork, and set aside.

3. START THE GREEN SAUCE When the leeks have been in for 15 minutes, they should be tender and roasted. Remove them from the oven and place into the blender.

4. HOMEMADE GOODNESS To the blender, add the sour cream, pesto, lemon juice, and seasoning. Pulse until smooth. Set aside.

5. LOAD WITH MORE FLAVOUR When the bulgur is done, toss through the roasted veg, red wine vinegar, ½ the oregano, a drizzle of oil and seasoning. Set aside.

6. UNDENIABLY DELICIOUS Plate up the loaded bulgur and serve the roast chicken alongside. Drizzle with the green sauce and garnish with the remaining oregano.
