Ingredients & Prep

400g	Potato rinsed & cut into bite-sized chunks
100ml	Dressing (50ml That Mayo (Original) & 50ml Low Fat Plain Yoghurt)
5g	Fresh Chives rinsed & finely chopped
2	Rainbow Trout Fillets
10ml	Spice & All Things Nice Thai Red Curry Paste
40g	Salad Leaves rinsed
8g	Fresh Mint rinsed & roughly chopped
1	Tomato roughly diced

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Paper Towel

1. TATERS GONNA TATE Place the potato pieces in a pot of salted water over a high heat. Pop on a lid and bring to the boil. Once boiling, remove the lid and reduce the heat. Allow to simmer for 20-25 minutes until cooked through and soft. Remove from the heat on completion and drain. Return to the pot and add the dressing, ½ the chives, and seasoning. Toss until fully combined.

2. TROUT IN A CURRY When the potatoes have 10 minutes remaining, pat the trout dry with paper towel. Coat the flesh with the curry paste (to taste) and seasoning. Place a pan over a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, fry the trout skin-side down for 2-3 minutes until crispy. Flip and fry for a further 30-60 seconds or until cooked to your preference. Remove from the pan on completion.

3. PEACEFUL HERB-ITAT In a salad bowl, combine the salad leaves, chopped mint, diced tomato, seasoning, and a drizzle of oil.

4. TROUT TIME! Pile up a generous helping of the potato salad and sprinkle over the remaining chives. Side with the curried trout fillet and the salad. Beautiful, Chef!

Chef's Tip

Always add curry paste to your taste preference — you don't have to add it all. If you have any left over from the trout and want a spicier dinner, add it to your potato salad for an extra kick!
