1. ROAST Preheat the oven to 200°C. Spread the sweet potato chunks on a roasting tray, coat in oil, and season. Roast in the hot oven for 30-35 minutes until cooked through, shifting halfway. Place a pan over a high heat with the wine & vinegar. Reduce until almost evaporated. Remove from the heat, and stir in a small splash of water. Remove from the pan.

2. GREENS Return the pan to a medium-high heat with a splash of water. When bubbling, simmer the halved green beans for 4-5 minutes until cooked. Add a drizzle of oil, season, and remove from the pan.

3. PORK Return the pan to a medium-high heat. Pat the pork fillets dry with paper towel, coat in oil, and season. When the pan is hot, sear the pork for 4-6 minutes, shifting as it colours. On completion, it should be browned all over. During the final minute, baste the pork with a knob of butter and the rub. Remove from the pan and place on a baking tray. Pop in the oven and roast for 5 minutes until cooked through. Remove and rest for 5 minutes before slicing.

4. FRIES Place the flour in a shallow dish (seasoned generously). Pour the milk into a second dish. Coat the marrow strips in the milk and then in the flour. Return the pan to a medium-high heat with enough oil to cover the base. When hot, lower the floured marrow into the oil. Fry for 2-3 minutes, until browned. Use a slotted spoon to flip the strips so they brown evenly. Fry in batches if necessary. Drain on paper towel and season.

5. HOLLANDAISE Ready 2 heatproof bowls. Place a pot over a medium-low heat and cover the base with 2cm of water. Keep a close eye on this water - it must only gently simmer! Place one of the heatproof bowls over the pot of water. To the bowl, add 1 egg yolk and the reduced wine mixture. Whisk in a cube of butter at a time, whisking constantly and only adding the next cube when the previous cube has melted. As you add more butter, the sauce will start to thicken. When all the butter has been added, remove from the heat and decant into the second heatproof bowl. Continue whisking until the sauce has thickened. Stir in the sriracha (to taste).

6. EAT! Serve the pork with a helping of the sweet potatoes. Side with the zucchini fries and the green beans. Pour the chilli hollandaise sauce over the pork and garnish with the chopped chives.

Chef's Tip

If you notice your sauce is starting to split, either whisk in another egg yolk or slowly whisk in hot water. Vigorously whisk the sauce until it comes back together!
