From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Paper Towel
Butter (optional)
Milk (optional)

1. SCARPARIELLO ROAST Preheat the oven to 200°C. Boil the kettle. In a roasting tray, combine 150ml of boiling water, the stock, the onion wedges, the rub, the juice of 3 lemon wedges, the grated garlic, and seasoning. Place the chicken in a bowl. Pat dry with some paper towel, coat in oil, and season. Add to the tray with the onion wedges and roast in the hot oven for 30-35 minutes until cooked through and becoming crispy. In the final 5-8 minutes, add the chopped pickled peppers to the tray.

2. CARROT MASH Place a pot over a medium-high heat with 3cm of boiling water covering the base. Once steaming, place the carrot chunks in a colander over the pot. Cover with a lid and allow to steam for 15-20 minutes until cooked through and soft. If the water starts to dry out before the carrot is cooked, simply add a little more to the pot to continue. Alternatively, use a steamer if you have one. Drain on completion and return to the pot. Add in a knob of butter or coconut oil (optional) and a splash of milk or warm water. Mash until smooth and season to taste.

3. DRESS YOUR LEAVES In a bowl, combine the rinsed leaves with the lemon zest (to taste), a drizzle of oil, and seasoning.

4. DINNER IS SERVED Plate up the vibrant carrot mash and slather with the Scarpariello-style chicken. Serve the dressed leaves on the side, sprinkle over the chopped parsley, and serve with a lemon wedge. There you have it!
