Spicy Jollof-style Rice & Biltong

with red pepper, coriander & creamy raita

Jollof rice is one of the most popular West African dishes - and we can see why! It is rich, spicy, & oh-so-incredibly tasty. Our version is packed with red pepper, onion & beef biltong for a South African twist!

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Sugar/Sweetener/Honey
Butter (optional)

1. RICE, RICE, BABY Boil the kettle. Place a deep, nonstick pan (with a lid) over medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil and a knob of butter (optional). When hot, add the diced onion and fry for 4-5 minutes until soft, shifting occasionally. Add the grated garlic, the jollof seasoning (to taste - it's spicy!) and a sweetener of choice (to taste). Fry for 1-2 minutes until fragrant, shifting constantly. Add the tomato paste and fry for a further 2-4 minutes, shifting constantly. Pour in the cooked chopped tomato, the rinsed rice, 400ml of boiling water, the stock, and seasoning. Mix until fully combined. Reduce the heat, cover with a lid and simmer for 10-15 minutes until the rice is fully cooked and all the liquid has been absorbed, stirring occasionally.

2. CHOP CHOP While the rice is simmering, rinse and pick the coriander. When the rice is done, remove from the heat, and stir through the pepper strips and the biltong.

3. HEARTY JOLLOF Plate up a hearty pile of jollof rice. Sprinkle over the picked coriander and dollop over the raita for a fresh touch. Beautiful, Chef!

Chef's Tip

Jollof rice is traditionally made with Scotch Bonnet chilli. We've made this version family-friendly but if you want an added kick, add in some sliced chilli or top with chilli sauce!
