1. PICKLE PARTY Boil the kettle. In a bowl, place the cucumber ribbons, julienne carrot, pickling liquid, and 15ml of cold water. Toss until the veg is fully coated and set aside to pickle.

2. HOISIN SAUCE Place a pot over a medium-high heat with 3-4cm of boiling water covering the base for Step 3. Place a pan over a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. Once hot, add the spring onion whites and fry for 1-2 minutes until soft and translucent, shifting occasionally. Add the mince and work quickly to break it up as it starts to cook. Allow to cook for 5-6 minutes until browned, stirring occasionally. Mix through the soy sauce, hoisin, and some seasoning (be cautious, the soy sauce is salty). Allow it to caramelise for 2-3 minutes until cooked through, shifting occasionally. Remove from the heat on completion and stir through ½ of the chopped coriander. Cover and set aside.

3. THE FEAST-ER BUN-NY! Once the water in the pot is steaming, place the bao buns in a colander over the pot. Cover and allow to steam for 5-6 minutes until cooked through and soft. Alternatively, use a steamer if you have one. Once cool enough to handle, use a knife to gently open each bun. Drain the pickling liquid from the cucumber and carrot – lose it or reuse it!

4. TAKE A BAO! Fill each bao bun with the hoisin-soy chicken mince and ribbons of the pickled veg. Sprinkle over the spring onion greens, the remaining chopped coriander, and the black sesame seeds. Serve with any remaining pickled veg. Amazing, Chef!

Chef's Tip

Any leftover pickling liquid? Store it in the fridge, and use it for a second time in another meal!
