Ingredients & Prep

960g	Carrot rinsed & roughly diced
2	Onions peeled & roughly diced
600g	Free-range Lamb Goulash pat dry & cut into bite-sized chunks
40ml	Durban Curry Paste
400g	Cooked Chopped Tomato
200g	Peas
2	Tomatoes roughly diced
15g	Fresh Coriander rinsed & roughly chopped
60ml	Desiccated Coconut
4	Poppadoms

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Sugar/Sweetener/Honey
Paper Towel

1. ON YOUR MARKS Place a pot over a medium heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, add the diced carrot and onion and fry for 5-6 minutes, shifting occasionally, until softened. Add the lamb chunks and fry for 4-5 minutes until browned, shifting occasionally.

2. GET SET... CURRY! When the lamb is browned, add the curry paste (to taste) to the pot and fry for 1-2 minutes until fragrant, shifting constantly. Pour in the cooked chopped tomato, 400ml of water, and bring up to the boil. Once boiling, reduce the heat and leave to simmer for 15-20 minutes or until the sauce has thickened slightly and the lamb has cooked through. In the final 3-5 minutes, add the peas. On completion, season with a sweetener of choice (to taste), salt, and pepper.

3. LET'S SALSA In a bowl, combine the diced tomato, ½ the chopped coriander, ½ the coconut, a drizzle of oil, and seasoning. Set aside. Place a pan over a medium-high heat with enough oil to cover the base. When hot, shallow fry the poppadoms one at a time for 30 seconds per side. As soon as the poppadom starts curling, use a spatula or tongs to flip it over and flatten it out. Keep flipping and flattening until golden and puffed up.

4. HURRY, GRAB SOME CURRY! Bowl up the delicious lamb curry! Side with the coconut salsa and the poppadoms. Sprinkle over the remaining coriander and coconut. Well done, Chef!

Chef's Tip

For this recipe, you can peel your carrots when prepping them if you don't like the skin — and you have the extra time and energy!
