1. BOILING BROTH Boil a full kettle. Place a pot over a medium-high heat with a drizzle of oil. When hot, add the curry paste (to taste) and the grated ginger. Fry for 1 minute, shifting constantly, until fragrant. Add 400ml of boiling water and the soy sauce. Mix until fully combined. Reduce the heat until a gentle simmer.

2. DUMPLINGS When the broth is simmering, lower the frozen dumplings into the broth. Cover with the lid and leave to simmer for 5-6 minutes.

3. FINISHING TOUCHES When the dumplings have 2-3 minutes remaining, add the sliced cabbage, ½ the julienne carrot, and ½ the chilli flakes (to taste) to the broth. Leave to simmer for the remaining time until the cabbage is slightly wilted and the dumplings are warmed through. On completion, season the broth with a sweetener of choice and a pinch of salt.

4. BEAUTIFUL BROTH Bowl up a generous helping of the broth and dumplings. Top with the remaining julienne carrots. Sprinkle over the picked coriander and the remaining chilli flakes (to taste). Dive right in, Chef!
