30ml	Beef Stock

From Your Kitchen

Oil (cooking, olive or coconut)
Salt & Pepper
Water
Paper Towel

1. ROASTED VEGGIES Preheat the oven to 200°C. Boil the kettle. Place the butternut chunks and the onion wedges on a roasting tray, coat in oil, and season. To make sure they do get crispy, don't overcrowd the tray – use two trays instead! Roast in the hot oven for 35-40 minutes until cooked through and crisping up, shifting halfway.

2. MAKE IT SAUCY Place a pan over a medium heat with the stock, 150ml of boiling water, and the tarragon. Leave to simmer for 3-5 minutes, until slightly reduced. Remove from the heat and add the mustard and ½ the balsamic vinegar (to taste). Mix until fully combined. Season to taste, place in a bowl, and cover to keep warm for serving.

3. FRY UP! Return the pan, wiped down if necessary, to a high heat with a drizzle of oil. Pat the fillets dry with paper towel. When the pan is hot, sear the fillets for 4-5 minutes per side, until browned all over, shifting as they colour. Remove from the pan on completion and set aside to rest for 5 minutes before slicing. Lightly season the slices.

4. THE TOSS UP In a bowl, combine the shredded salad leaves, the remaining balsamic vinegar, a drizzle of oil, and seasoning.

5. HOORAY FOR FILET! Plate up the luscious beef fillet slices and drizzle over the tarragon sauce. Serve with the roasted onion and butternut alongside the dressed leaves. Well done, Chef!
